Re: Teko Foli v. Metro-North Railroad, Craig Gustavson, John Doe. Case No.: 24-
CV-09355 (NSR)

Dear Honorable Judge Roman,

Pursuant to the Court directive dated February 14, 2025, Plaintiff was to serve (not file) his motion papers on March 31, 2025. Defendants' opposition papers were to be served (not filed) on April 28, 2025, and Plaintiff's reply papers were to be served on May 13, 2025. Defendants were directed to file all motion papers on the Reply date, May 13, 2025.

By reasons of Plaintiff's needs to attend to urgent health matters, and the significant time he spent on his relocation and career needs, Plaintiff can no longer serve his motion for consolidation papers on March 31, 2025, and it has become necessary to request an extension of time to serve same.

On March 14, 2025, Pro se Plaintiff sought Defendants' consent for an extension to file his motion for consolidation papers on April 25, 2025, and for the remaining of the briefing schedule to be adjusted accordingly. Defendants stated they do not oppose Plaintiff's request for adjournment.

According to the new schedule, Plaintiff will serve (not file) his motion papers on April 25, 2025. Defendants will serve (not file) their opposition papers on May 23, 2025. Plaintiff's Reply papers will be served on June 9, 2025. Defendants will file all motion papers on the Reply date, June 9, 2025.

This motion is timely, made in good faith, for purpose of necessity only, in order to obtain additional time to serve the motion for consolidation papers, and not for purposes of delay. Wherefore, Pro Se Plaintiff Teko Foli respectfully prays that this Court grants him the extension of time to serve his motion for consolidation papers on April 25, 2025, and for the remaining of the briefing schedule to be adjusted accordingly
